DESIGNATING A BENEFICIARY

If one individual is designated, use their full name, for example "Mary J. Smith", not "Mrs. John Smith".

If two individuals are to be named, designate as follows: "Mary Smith, wife and Dorothy Smith, daughter in equal share, or to the survivor."

If all children of a marriage are to be named secondary beneficiaries, designated as follows: "Mary Smith, wife if living, otherwise the surviving children, if any, born of the insured's marriage with said wife in equal shares. (This will include children born later without the necessity of changing the designation.)

If you are married, your spouse must be the designated beneficiary.

If you are divorced, your ex-spouse may be entitled to all or part of the Pre-Retirement death benefits.

If more than one valid claim is made, no benefits will be paid until there is a resolution as to entitlement.

Be sure to state the relationship, for example, "wife", "son", "daughter".

If more than one beneficiary is designated, benefits will be divided equally, unless you designated otherwise.

You must complete a new card to change your beneficiary designation. A card must be on file at the Administrative Office in order to be valid.

Contact the Administrative Office if you have any questions. (562) 463-5080
